Councilor Mans, Chair of The Community Affairs and Public Relations Committee reported that a video of the public meeting on the Borough’s drinking water is posted on the Borough’s Facebook page and an article written for the Glen Ridge Voice can be viewed online.

Councilor Lefkovits, Chair of the Public Works Committee, reported that Christmas Tree pick up is still taking place on the first garbage day of your pick-up schedule. All trees should be placed curbside, and must be free of all lights and decorations. The Public Works Department came in to salt the roads during the last minor snow storm and used about 16 tons of salt and about 600 pounds of calcium chloride. All snow removal vehicles have been checked and repaired if necessary and are ready for the next storm. He also gave a brief update on tree pruning and tree removal.

Councilor Morrow, Chair of the Planning and Development Committee reported that the Planning Board held their reorganizational meeting on January 17, 2018. There are two main projects on the horizon for the upcoming year, the Baldwin Street Redevelopment and the Mountainside Office Project. Joint meeting of the Glen Ridge and Montclair Planning Board will be held sometime in February or March for the Mountainside project.

Borough Administrator Rohal reported that the Borough is planning on introducing the budget in March with a public hearing to be held in early April. He also stated that the Borough will be working with several agencies and organizations with regards to the effects the Federal IRS regulations may have on the Borough.

Borough Attorney Malyska gave a brief update on the Baldwin Street Redevelopment.

Chief Byron-Lagattuta congratulated Tara Ventola on behalf of the entire police department. Chief Byron also reminded the residents that the new pedestrian beacons have been installed on Ridgewood Avenue and Belleville Avenue to assist in continuing to protect the safety of pedestrians.

Mayor Patrick called for comments of the public. Peter Seymour of 6 Mead Terrace spoke to the council about his continued concerns about the curb cuts throughout the town and how they affect blind members of the community.

It was moved by Councilor Lefkovits, seconded by Councilor Morrow that this meeting be adjourned. The Motion was adopted by an aye and no vote.
